

Budgeting & Credit Seminars Livermore, California

On June 4th and 5th, 2014, National Budget Planners was pleased to host two free seminars on Budgeting and the Wise Use of Credit in conjunction with Tri-Valley Housing Opportunity Center.

Tri-Valley Housing Opportunity Center is a 501(c)(3) charitable non-profit housing counseling agency that offers residents expert unbiased and personalized information to guide them through the complex process of home-seeking, home-buying, or saving the home they already own.

National Budget Planners provided instruction on wise use of credit and particular credit topics related to successfully reaching financial freedom as well as general budget planning education.