

Building Positive Credit

*Ashland Village
San Leandro, CA*

On February 23th, National Budget Planners and Tri Valley Housing Opportunity Center were invited to give a presentation to Ashland Village on Building Positive Credit.

Ashland Village is a low-income housing complex with Eden Housing, with whom we had a longstanding relationship and history of financial outreach. Residents were very receptive to learning the tools necessary to accrue positive credit and work toward financial freedom.

February 23, 2015